Offers in the Region of £850,000

Higher Wheathead Farm is an exceptional rural property occupying an elevated and private position off Wheathead Lane above the sought-after village of Blacko, in the heart of the Pendle countryside. Surrounded by rolling pastureland, dry-stone walls and open moorland scenery, the property enjoys far-reaching panoramic views across the Lancashire landscape, creating a peaceful and picturesque setting ideal for countryside living.

The farmstead combines traditional agricultural heritage with attractive rural residential appeal. Near a quiet hamlet of character farmhouses and converted barns, the property offers a rare sense of seclusion whilst remaining conveniently accessible to Barrowford, Nelson and the M65 motorway network, providing links to Manchester, Leeds and the wider North West.

The overall style of the property can best be described as rustic, authentic and with potential for personalization. Its blend of historic agricultural charm, dramatic elevated setting and tranquil rural atmosphere creates a distinctive lifestyle opportunity suited to buyers seeking privacy, character and connection to the natural landscape.

Higher Wheathead Farm represents a rare opportunity to acquire a characterful rural home within one of Pendle's most scenic countryside locations.
